Training of Trainers (TOT) Participant Agreement Form

A Training of Trainers event is different than other trainings or workshops you may have attended. In particular, this Training of Trainers requires that you have: experience as a trainer; presentation skills; and sensitivity to the topic area. These criteria are in place to ensure that the curriculum is instructed as designed when disseminated. To date, this Training of Trainers has been implemented across the nation at six sites with other participants going through a similar process. An informal screening has been conducted to ensure that all participants meet minimum trainer criteria. When you agree to attend the LGBT Training of Trainers you are agreeing to the following:

1. Receive and accept feedback on your training skills and mastery of the training content.
2. Understand that not everyone who completes the Training of Trainers is approved by the master trainers to go on and instruct this training.
3. Conduct at least one training event within the ATTTC region supporting the state you reside at no cost to help defray expenses.
4. Attend all scheduled days of the Training of Trainers event.
5. Prepare for the training by completing the pre-training notebook and reading/reviewing articles which will be forwarded to you and familiarizing yourself with the curriculum before the Training of Trainers starts.

6. Present a portion of the curriculum and receive feedback from peers and master trainers.
7. Consult with master trainers regarding areas needing improvement.
8. Understand that feedback will be given to the ATTTC supporting the state you reside and Prairieland's ATTTC regarding your abilities to train this curriculum.
9. Participate in the LGBT Training of Trainers Learning Community sponsored and facilitated by the Prairieland's ATTTC.
